PART FOUR

Emil's original manuscript for these five volumes has unfortunately gone missing, reportedly lost in transit, as the DHL call center has informed me—although one might suspect a wink and a nudge in that explanation.

When Emil attempted to resend the documents prior to publication, he encountered an unexpected hurdle: the telex he prepared was simply too lengthy for his local Western Union office to handle.

As a result, I found myself stepping in to craft this introduction on his behalf, ensuring that his vision and intent are still conveyed to the readers.

It's a curious twist of fate that has led to this moment, but I am honored to share Emil's work with you, even if it comes with a story of its own.

The unfortunate loss of Emil's original manuscript is indeed a source of sorrow and disappointment; however, it inadvertently spares WWWG from yet another barrage of irate correspondence from Ahriman and his WEF Goonie Cronies legal team(s).

This group has a notorious reputation for unleashing threats of exorbitant lawsuits, now calculated in Indonesian Gold Dinars due to the declining value of the USD, which many are beginning to view as little more than monopoly money.

These legal threats are typically directed at the Southern District of New York's Federal Courts, a venue where Ahriman and his associates have cultivated numerous connections, making the prospect of litigation all the more daunting. Thus, while the loss is lamentable, it may ultimately serve as a protective measure against the relentless legal onslaught that has characterized their interactions. It appears that I have conveyed everything I intended to share, particularly given the constraints

imposed by ongoing legal matters
and existing confidentiality
agreements.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support of the Starving Artist, previously known as Emil.

Additionally, I want to gently remind you that all sales are final, and we do not offer refunds.
